Sunday School Classes Picnic.

Tuesday evening Miss Lyla Smith and O. C. Cooper entertained their Sunday school classes with a most enjoyable picnic and hay ride. The picnic was given at the Brown lake and was enjoyed by all. The Sunday school classes were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Cooper and Mrs. G. Lyle Smith and Miss Lyla Smith.

Promptly at 4 o'clock the start was made from the church and the drive to the lake was made amid the shouts of the young folks who gave the three times three repeatedly, the 15 rah-rahs for their pastor and their teachers. Arrived at the lake the party enjoyed itself by boating and other similar amusements, winding up with a delicious luncheon furnished by the girls of Miss Smith's class and finished with an abundance of ice cream furnished by Mr. Cooper. The picnic party returned to Chickasha at about ten o'clock, tired and happy.

The following composed the party: Misses Doris Murphy, Verda King, Ruth Baxter, Mary Baxter, Ruth French, Ole Record, Maud Church, Ruth Church, Fannie Terrill, Wilma Edwards, Maurine Morris, Katherine Joy, Clarine Bullock, Edna Stone, Alma Jackson, Pauline Cooper, Bertie Cooper, Masters Forrest Means, Daman Corbin, Tom Dixon, Glenn Church, Vernon Balne, Olin Joyce, Robert Fitzpatrick, O. C. Cooper, Jr., Leon Cox.

Hutchinson-Frey Nuptials.

The marriage of Mr. Frank B. Hutchinson and Miss Mary Lucy Frey was solemnized at the Presbyterian parish house Thursday afternoon at five o'clock by the Rev. Edwin B. Teis. The wedding came as a surprise to their many friends. Miss Sase Frey, a sister of the bride, was the only attendant.

The bride is the elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Frey and has spent her girlhood in Chickasha. She graduated in the class of 1914 at the O. C. W., and afterwards held a position in the public school at Tuttle. She endeared herself to all her friends both in college and church circles, by her charming manner and sweet disposition. Mr. Hutchinson is connected with the bank of Tuttle and is known to be an estimable young man. The young people left the same evening on the northbound Rock Island for a short trip and will be at home to their friends in Tuttle after June 25.

Dinner for Departing Friends.

Multicolored sweet peas supplemented the necessary appointments at the dinner given Monday night at the Geronimo by the members of the Monday Bridge club for Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Siddons. A large bowl of the fragrant blossoms graced the center of the table and smaller bowls decorated the ends. Beautiful corsage bouquets for the ladies and nosegays for the men were placed with the cards at each plate. The repast was served in six courses.

The party then proceeded to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sheegog where cards were enjoyed at four tables. Parting favors were presented the popular honorees, Mrs. Siddons receiving a mayonnaise spoon and Mr. Siddons a traveling drinking cup.

Mr. and Mrs. Siddons expect to leave by July 1, for Denver, where they will make their future home. The date chosen for the dinner was their third wedding anniversary.

Picnic at Farm.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Burton entertained a number of their neighbors at an informal picnic supper at their farm, southeast of Chickasha Thursday night. A delicious meal was enjoyed and cards furnished amusement for the remainder of the evening.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Smith, Misses Alberta Smith, Bernadine Campbell, Vendia Eckland and Jennie Record, Messrs. T. J. King, H. N. Smith, Jr., Dick Wootten, Ben Morgan, John Gribb, Blackburne, Carpenter, Patten, Boyd, Slusher and Dr. Bond.

Last Meeting of Guild.

The ladies of the Presbyterian Guild held their last meeting for the present, on Tuesday of this week, at which time they agreed to adjourn for the summer. There was a good crowd present, and all sewing on hand was finished. An aluminum demonstration was held during the afternoon. The ladies voted to each earn a dollar for the Guild during the summer.

Party on Eighth Birthday.

Mrs. Sam Brown, 407 Iowa, entertained a number of young people quite merrily yesterday afternoon, the occasion being the eighth birthday of her daughter, Elsie Lee. Miss Edith May Reville of El Reno was also an honored guest. Potted plants, sweet peas and other cut flowers decorated the rooms wherein the happy crowd enjoyed music, games and lovely refreshments. A fine party at the Suggs concluded the pleasures of the afternoon. The guests were Misses Mildred Streeter, Sadie Lubman, Mary Walsley West, Edwina and Winona Tinsley, Mildred Lorenson, Lucile Bennett, Clarine Bullock, Ruth Hafer, Alice Russell, Oklahoma McMasters, Inez Ferguson, Margaret and Betty Beavers, Pauline Pawan, Mildred Mathews, and Edith May Reville of El Reno.

Out of Town Guests Honored.

Mrs. Olin Brashear entertained most delightfully Thursday afternoon from three to six o'clock. The pleasant occasion was in honor of Mrs. Arthur Whorton of St. Louis, Mrs. Henry Carl of Ada, and Mrs. J. E. Rankin of Paris, Texas all of whom are visiting relatives in Chickasha. The hours were spent informally with fancy work and reminiscences of old times were the source of much amusement. A dainty collation consisting of a salad and ice cream was served, the table being artistically decorated with fragrant blossoms and carrying out the suggestion of summer time.

The guest list included Mesdames Otley Anderson, Sid Anderson, Claycomb, Cralle, Ben Johnson, Rogers, John Majors, Powers, Dyche, Siddons, Ambrister, Durand of Frederick, and the honorees.

Line Party is Enjoyed.

Miss Hazel Owsley and Mr. Roy Elledge were the host and hostess at a jolly line party Thursday night given in honor of Miss Helen Wray and her guest, Miss Scott of Columbia, S. C. After the screen entertainment the party enjoyed lovely refreshments at the Owl.

The party included Misses Helen Wray, Scott, Edwina Hard, Olive Smith, Mattie and Lillian Hart, Marguerite Coleman and Rebecca Armstrong, and Messrs. Looney Wallace, Gerard Gowdy, Albert Hawn, Ted Hampton, Clyde McCauley, Alvin Wallace, Jim Bradley and Willis Elledge.

Miss McClelland Surprised.

Miss Agnes McClelland was happily surprised by a number of her friends who spent Wednesday evening at her home. The occasion was in honor of Miss McClelland's departure next Sunday for New Mexico, where she will make an extended visit. Music and games were enjoyed and lovely refreshments served.

Included in the party were Misses Sybil Freeman, Stella and Gertie Gerstenfeld, Ada Hudgins, Marjorie Watkins, Dobbys and Lenora Snyder of Wichita, Kansas, and Messrs. Oliver, Lipkin, Freeman, Wilkerson, Wright, Gerstenfeld and Watkins.

Birthday Stag Party.

Mrs. B. P. Smith entertained a number of young men at a stag party and seven o'clock dinner on Monday evening of this week, in celebration of the twenty-fifth birthday of her son Reece. Sweet peas and snow balls formed the central decoration of the attractive table at which places were laid for Messrs. Reece and Jack Smith, Tom Boyd, H. N. Smith, Jr., Caldwell Chastain, Harry Scott, Dick Wootten, Howard Hampton and Milton Campbell. A line party at the Suggs succeeded the dinner.

Monday Bridge Club.

Mrs. D. M. Cavanaugh was hostess to the members of the Monday Bridge club and one table of guests on Thursday afternoon of this week. High score was made by Mrs. Ed Sheegog, who won a pretty hand painted plate. The usual number of games was followed by refreshments. Guests other than members were Mesdames E. U. McArthur of Lindsay, Marmaduke Corbin, Ad Melton and Harwell.

Miss Olive Smith will be hostess to the club next week.

Buffet Supper for Bridal Party.

Miss Julia Wootten entertained the members of the Wootten-Scott bridal party most enjoyably at a buffet supper Tuesday night after the wedding rehearsal. A long table was prettily decorated with sweet peas and a delicious menu served. The evening was as informal as enjoyable.

Miss Lenora Snyder of Wichita, Kansas, is visiting Mrs. J. W. Speake.
